DEATH CLAIMS WOMAN OFFICER OF CONFEDERACY

aptain Sallie Louisa Tompkins Dies at Confederate Home, Aged Eighty-Three.

HAD REMARKABLE WAR RECORD

Was Commissioned by President Jefferson Davis as Captain of Cavalry, and Operated Hospital in Richmond During Great War.

Captain Sallie Louisa Tompkins, ighty-three years old, the only woman received a commission in the Army Confederacy, died yesterday g at 8:45 o'clock in the Home onfederate Women, 3 East Grace Commissioned as a soldier, she a nurse, and many a vet-in Tompkins was born at Pop-Mathews County, November her nearest surviving relatives and Miss Clementine Tomp-Elizabeth and Marie Tompkins. many years ago.

pkins was commissioned a captain avairy at the request of President son Davis, and she opened a hos-at the northwest corner of third ain Streets, in the home of John s. She took her mother's old opened the hospital ten days the first battle of Manassas, closon June 13, 1865.

ONFEDERATE VETERANS

afternoon at 5 o'clock, Rev. Chamberlayne officiating will take place in Mathews the graveyard of the church d Elizabeth Tompkins helped

Sergeant-Major

Richmond Chapter.

W. Crump Tucker, James Tabb. Caw Tompkins, H. Watkins El-Thomas Pinckney Bryan, Her- gest

NEWSPAPER COSTS SOARING SKYWARD NEWSPAPER COSTS

ominion have been tranquil, and our y from ocean to ocean. With the e taxation methods adjusted for the ime being, and with a year free from olitical contests of any import, the roblems at home have not been such has had the time to consider the ques. paper used. ions of world-wide import which at ttlement means much to America. and in the solutions of these problems he editor, not alone as the molder public opinion in his community. reat public and the men at the head f affairs of state, has had to bear his share of the burden imposed by these oreign relations. But we of Virginia have felt sure that their settlement ould be along the lines of the best nterest of our nation and people as ng as they were intrusted to a noble ative of this city, Woodrow Wilson, resident of the United States. REAT PROBLEMS BROUGHT TO EDITORIAL SANCTUM

But as the war has brought great blems to the editorial sanctum, it as laid upon the desk of the pubsher even greater ones, and it is to his particular portion of the newsaper man's responsibility that I wish

"Perhaps at no time within the past cade has the outlook for the Viria publisher, from a financial standint, been less assuring than at presit. At every step he is confronted an increased expense account hile there has been no material inrease in his revenues. He is now st recovering from the depression of 914, when the war commenced, and he increase of 30 per cent in advertisng revenues reported at the meeting if the American Publishers' Associaon would not hold true in Virginia. while circulation figures show some ilight advances, this has been caused y the demand for war news, and at he present price of paper has not been ofitable to the publisher.

"The cost of paper has been the test item to be considered by the sher, and the condition of the

Confederate Nurse Dies

CAPTAIN SALLIE TOMPKINS.

cause alarm, although not the panicky the States, an order was is- representative of the Departmen closing private hospitals, Miss Commerce in its investigation of the

WILL ATTEND FUNERAL the amount of his yearly purchases. of wood pulp from Scandinavian paper as cheap as we American distrust. once had it in this country two years LESSONS ARE DRAWN m was not such as would sistent for more money with which to experimentation, the need of a state specific to the State. Taxa-meet the constantly increasing cost of Pan-American merchant marine, exberity to the State. Taxa-meet the constantly increasing cost of Pan-American merchant marine, exberity to the big living, the publisher is confronted with tensive Pan-American reciprocity in more or less useful for campaign pure the American that the American that the American hitle capitalist, he said.

Anding more business, increasing his ties, and Pan-American reciprocity in more or less useful for cam the afternoon session, held in the prices, or closing down. I cannot see treaties, laws and intercourse, to build poses to charge that the allroom of the Virginia Hotel. President Earrest read his address, which in the near future in Virginia to meet iverted from the usual vein and suched on the question of print paper. The following the conclusion that I reach is that the increased expenses, and, therefore, the conclusion that I reach is that the is address follows:

"Since the last meeting of the Virginia Hotel. President and the prospect of enough new business in the prospect of enough new business up Pan-American trade.

"The Mexican situation, on the other had, has loomed up with its fearful as well as its favorable potentialities. It is no exaggeration, therefore, to state that, if the Mexican problem is that there are fifty-six more ships in the other had, has loomed up with its fearful as well as its favorable potentialities.

It is no exaggeration, therefore, to state that, if the Mexican problem is the other had, has loomed up with its fearful as well as its favorable potentialities.

It is no exaggeration, therefore, to state that, if the Mexican problem is a supposed by a country edition of print paper. "Since the last meeting of the Virinia Press Association a year ago there has been little of a domestic given a short shrift. Circulation must be passed and order are established in fighting ship in the navy, so that tobe cut down as nearly as possible to the actual number of paid subscribers. The exchange list must be pruned, and while I do not advocate the policy of cutting off country exchanges, there to the policy of cutting off country exchanges, there to the policy of the United States, and permanent additional men to thiny man every fighting ship in the navy, so that to day twenty-five battleships—more than ever before—are engaged with operation of the United States government of its sovereignty, and with the friendly co-than ever before—are engaged with operation of the United States, and permanent additional men to thiny man every fighting ship in the navy, so that to day twenty-five battleships—more than ever before—are engaged with the solidarity control of the proper part of the Senate has just passed a naval bill than every five the proper part of the property of the embers of the association. Condi- the actual number of paid subscribers. within the borders of the Old The exchange list must be pruned, and can be a reform in the number of exchanges without great harm to those interested. Some papers will find it possible to use a lighter weight of cuba on the north, to Argentina and cuba on the north, to Argentina and chief conditions of the south—will then rejoice the owners—all with the object of reducing the north of papers—all with the object of reducing the north of papers—all with the object of reducing the north of papers—all with the object of reducing the north of papers—all with the object of reducing the north of papers—all with the object of reducing the north of papers—all with the object of reducing the north of papers—all with the object of reducing the north of papers—all with the object of reducing the north of papers—all with the object of reducing the north of papers—all with the object of reducing the north of papers—all with the object of reducing the number of papers—all with the north of papers—all with the object of reducing the number of papers—all with the north of papers—all with the north of papers—all with the number of papers—all with the num the object of reducing the amount of imes have threatened the peace of his ountry as well as those great probms of international nature whose space used. There can be no exceptions - churches, fraternal organizations, etc., must help you to bear your burden. "Every economy, must be practiced but as the connecting link between the and every effort made to put the Virginia printing shops on an efficiency

A Wonderful Sale

Steamer Trunks Values $15 to $20, $10

In this big sale are Rountree In this big said are average Steamer Trunks at a big saving price—saving that those with Trunk needs to supply should take advantage of. Come in take advantage of. Come in roller tray and lift tray styles, with best brass trimmings, locks and bolts, made of genuine fiber every Virginia publisher that, if he has not already done so, he purchase a baling machine, so as to bale his waste paper, keep the shop neat and waste paper, keep the shop neat and for peace and progress. clean, set an example of the necessity of saving paper to the community, and incidentally pay a handsome dividend of saving paper to the community, and incidentally pay a handsome dividend upon the cost of the machine.

GUARANTEED FOR SEVEN

"I desire to take this opportunity to express to my brethren and sisters of ernments and peoples of Latin-Amer he fraternity my keen appreciation of their many courtesies to me since I am laying aside the editorial pen for a e in fields far away from and wear the proudest title a man can tope to wear-a Virginia editor."

The following committees then were Nominations-C. B. Cooke, chairman;

A. P. Rowe, E. C. Bradshaw, W. Mc-Donald Lee, R. A. James, Finance—R. A. Chamberlayne, chair-

nan; C. J. Campbell, W. S. Copeland, Membership-E. G. Moseley, W. F.

Carne, M. T. Harrison.
At 4 o'clock a "sight-seeing" street car tour of the city was made, which ended at Gypsy Hill Park, where luncheon was served.

DELAYS NIGHT MEETING A heavy downpour of rain delayed

ernor J. Taylor Ellyson and Westmore-an sympathy and Pan-American commerce. On the other hand, the Mexi-can situation has always contained friendship and doing away with Pan-

ARE SOARING SKYWARD century, that the future commercial.

of the American republics not only and lasting, but a mighty factor "Advertising rates must be raised in the form of a group of nations, for "In other words, if the Mexican quesdevices may be used and the costs of production cut to a minimum. And in this connection may I suggest to every Virginia publisher that if he which, as in the United States, is the best barometer of public sentiment, it would appear true that while the govica are sympathetic with the United States government and people in the matter of many distressing incidents have been in their midst and the deep regret that I have to be away from them for some time in the future. blame the United States for rear or so, and while I will retain my nterest in the Gazette, I will be compelled to be in fields far away from ou, too far to hear your kindly voices that conditions and a situation have and see your cordial smiles, but not loo far. I hope, to be out of your memory or to lose the place I have always felt that I had in your hearts. I will carry away with me the most they, on the other hand, do not believe will carry away with me the most indly recollections of every one of ou, and hope that in the near future will be able to again join your ranks government and people without the impairment of Mexican sovereignty by another republic. "Let, therefore, the editors of Virginia and the United States, in deter-mining their attitude towards the Mexican situation, think not alone of bor der troubles and vexatious incidents in the interior of Mexico, as if they were causes for war and intervention, but let them look beyond to all Latin-Resolutions—James C. Latimer, chair-nan; C. J. Campbell, W. S. Copeland. portance of promoting alike the confidence and commerce of twenty sister republics, having a combined popula-tion of $6,000,000, an area of 2,000,-000 square miles, or three times that of the United States, and an annual foreign commerce valued at nearly $3,-000,000,000, in which the share of the United States, according to the lates staticties, is nearly one third, or be-yond $900,000,000.

"It is also gratifying to add that the Virginia Press Association and the editors of Virginia have been well com-plimented and recognized in the matplimented and recognized in the mat-ter of their co-operation for Pan-Americanism by the recent appoint-ment of Robert S. Barrett, the presi-dent of the association and editor of the Alexandria Gazette, to represent the Department of Commerce in inves-tigating important trade conditions in South America.

"All hail, therefore, I say, to the direct interest of the Virginia Press Association in promoting Pan-American commerce, Pan-American friendship and Pan-American peace."

BY A PUBLIC OFFICIAL Secretary of the Navy Daniels spoke a public official. He confidence fact that a newspaper man never takes a confidence, and that he which would have utterly Pan-Ameri- An editor sounded the keynote at each recently held. That is a change the possibilities of disrupting this most editors were skilled in making same solidarity, sympathy and com-music out of their party organ. And merce, but at the same time having they keynoted in a way to satisfy their potentiality of being an all-power-parties. in the Republican convention factor in cementing Pan-American Elitor Harding keynoted so satisfactorily that no other keynote deemed necessary. In the Democratic convention Editor Glynn keynoted so eloquently as to capture the convention European war has to-day a and got almost as much marching and beating of drums as Bryan or Roose justified in allowing the lure of journal ism to beckon to them in their younge find their life calling.

OF HIS "GUILT" AS EDITOR never have been so constantly reminded of the guilt of being a cour a public position. Two Presidents of the United States before President Wilson saw fit to appoint country edi-tors to be Secretaries of the Navy President Lincoln appointed Gideon Welles to be head of what Lincoln himself called the 'web-footed' arm of so settled that all Latin-Amer- the service, and President Arthur ap ica will be convinced of the good pointed William E. Chandler as Sec

STOCKING-UP HINTS:

VIRGINIA MOUNTAN, 1906 SCOTCH WHISKIES

GIBSON PURE RYE, 1907 FRENCH CORDIALS KENTUCKY BOURBONS, 1909. IMPORTED WINES VIRGINIA APPLE BRANDY SHERRIES, PORTS, FRENCH BRANDIES MADEIRAS, CLARETS

SAUTERNES, RHINES CHAMPAGNES AND SPARKLING BURGUNDIES.

1204 East Main Street,

Richmond, Va.

where the latest labor-saving as may be used and the costs of cition cut to a minimum. And is no question that a deep and broad is connection may I suggest to Virginia publisher that, if he cot already done so, he purchase in gaper, keep the shop neat and seep and progress.

If the contact time to the used is sister republics, there the connection may I suggest to virginia publisher that, if he cot already done so, he purchase in paper, keep the shop neat and seep and progress.

If the contact time the next publisher that is no question that a deep and broad wave of true Pan-Americanism will sweep over the entire Western Hemistrian machine, so as to bale his immediate, so as to bale his paper, keep the shop neat and seep and progress.

If the contact the next publisher that history will for a third time vindicate the claim of the word vickers, his brother, has brought the action, and the maximum under the laws of Virginia is asked.

Young Vickers, while painting a sign on June 27 by coming into contact with the verdict of history that both with a wire in Pétersburg. If T. rounded viewpoint, enabling him to consider problems from every angle, so that he may come to a right judgment. Whatever successes he may have achieved or whatever failures he may be justly charged with, the present Secretary of the Navy has always been grateful, in considering many im-portant problems that have come be-fore him, for his training as a jour-Secretary Daniels closed with an appeal for a better understanding be-tween the press and the public officers, and for a devotion to accuracy in reporting the views and policies of men called to public service.

Mrs. Kate Langley Bosher, vice-president of the Virginia Equal Suffrage League, spoke at length, and urged the Virginia editors to support the suffrage planks of the Republican, Progressive and Democratic na-

Attorney-General Pollard will speak to-morrow morning. Mrs. Kate Waller Barrett, of Alexandria, who is making the trip by automobile, was delayed by the storm, and probably will not The program for to-morrow will be:

10 A. M.—Business session, Virginia Hotel. Address, W. H. Savory, of the Mergenthaler Linotype Company, sub-"The Cost of an Inch of Adver-1:30 P. M .- Automobile trip to Grottoes and Harrisonburg. Luncheon at Harrisonburg, compliments of Chamber of Commerce. Entrance to Caverns, compliments of J. M. Pirkey.

Special committee on automobiles for trip to Harrisonburg-W. B. Timberlake and W. F. Ficklen. On finan Curtis P. Bowman and A. Walters. music-John D. Crowle. On tolls-Clark Worthington.

SUES FOR $10,000 DAMAGES

Brother of Man Killed by Electric Wire Brings Action Against Company.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] DURHAM, N. C., July 25.—Notice has been given of a civil action against the Virginia Railway and Power Com-pany, of Richmond and Petersburg, for Vickers, of Durham, who lost his life WHITE THE PARTY OF THE PARTY OF

The Store That Pleases" For Good Furniture Jones Bros. & Co., Inc. 1418-1420 E. Main St.

The suit will be tried in Petersburg probably in October, Brawley & Gantt, of Durham, and Lassiter & Drewry, of Petersburg, are attorneys for the plaintiff. Hamilton and Mann represent the railway company.

FIREMAN KILLED IN WRECK

Burled Beneath Engine When Train Is Derailed at Greenwood Station.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] STAUNTON, VA., July 25.—Fireman F. R. Bowers was killed instantly at Greenwood, a small station on the Chesapeake and Ohio, seventeen miles west of Charlottesville, to-night when fast train No. 6 was derailed. The engine, express car, baggage car and one day coach turned entirely over. The baggage car piled on top of the Bowers was buried beneath the en-gine and cut to pieces. No one else among either crew or passengers was sorns, NORFOLK, VA., July 25.—Figures compiled for his annual report and annual report and annual to-day by Captain G. E. Humphrey, United States engineer, show that the water-borne comperce of Norfolk harbor during 1915 reached a total valuation of $2,042,335,814, an increase of $558, 229,084, over 1911. increase of $958,229,064 over 1914.

RECORD FOR NORFOLK

Water-Borne Commerce of Harbor fo 1915 Reaches Valuation of $2,042,325,814.

The total tonnage was 21,712,166, an increase of 1,863,508 tons over the pre-This record is the greatceding year. est in the history of the port.

Hajoca brasswork for bath-room, kitchen and laundry fixtures insures long service.

We frequently have people tell us they have Hajoca faucets and other brasswork that have been in continuous use for thirty years or more.

Phone Randolph 4716 for our automobile to bring you as our guest. Write for Hajoca Book, HAINES, JONES & CADBURY CO. 14 and 16 S. Ninth St., Richmond, Va.

PAINTS

ORIGINAD

Tanner Paint & Oil Co

1117 and 1419 E. Main St. Richmond, Va.

Don't Fail to See Our Kensington Avenue Homes

The Highest Class Home Development in Richmond

An entire block of beautiful Old English Homes in the prettiest part of the city. They contain every conceivable modern convenience and many features never used before. There are eight large rooms, two beautiful tiled bathrooms, large attic and a cellar under the entire house. Only an inspection can make you appreciate what these homes are.

PRICE, $7,750. REASONABLE TERMS IF DESIRED. Don't Put It Off, Inspect To-Day 3012 Kensington Avenue

(In the block next the Battle Abbey.)

There Are Only a Few Unsold MUHLEMAN & KAYHOE

207 Real Estate Exchange Building. Phone Madison 7173.

"It Pays to Buy a Muhleman & Kayhoe Home.

THE STORE DOMINANT AND THE STORE PROGRESSIVE FOUNDED, BUILT AND MAINTAINED ON TRUTH AND HONOR

Store Closes Daily at 5 P. M.; Saturdays, 6 P. M.

Bar Harbor 45c CUSHIONS

tufted, after picking out three o four of the prettiest patterns All

At the Very Height of the Season We Announce A Clean-Up Sale of Trunks, Bags, Traveling Goods

E have gone through the entine line—have attached new selling prices to quotations that were already 25 per cent beneath what other stores are asking-have done so at the very height of the season-expect a very enthusiastic response to this announcement-are very willing to have you compare the following any any other items involved in this sale with what you will find elsewhere-only remember the standard of Cohen quality is never sacrificed for the momentary benefit of price. For example:

A Wardrobe Trunk, $21

own good judgment will discern the intrinsic value of every item in the sale. This special Wardrobe Trunk is 40% inches long, 207-8 inches wide, 225-8 taches deep-we even measure to the fraction to be truthful. It is covered with fiber, linen lined, has three drawers, a large hat section, seven combina-

Special No. 2 | Special No. 3 A Wardrobe Trunk covered with vulcanized fiber and provided with three drawers and a three-ply veneer box, finished with strong brass-plated steel hardware, represents a very special special $13.98

Fiber Covered Wardrobe Trunk, with raised top, six roomy drawers, a shoe box and new spring slide, on which to place garments so that they will not become mussed, is included $32.50 in the sale

Others at $19, $27 to $60

DRESS TRUNKS-Here we come to those with an automatic sliding tray, provided with an extra skirt strength of these in vulcanized fiber. with a double tray. Note the round edges, 32 to 38-inch $10.50 sizes, $9.00 to

How the Bags and Suit Cases Have Been Marked

made up of Canvas Covered Dress

Trunks with strong cowhide straps.

black and tan leathers; 16 and 18-inch sizes. finished $1.00 brass. $2.98

IST BAGS, with sew- of good tan leather, good quality cowed-on handles, leather lined, are very special $5.00 at $3.50 shown with shirt fold, $4.98